Rev A. A. Phelps.
Castine, Me.

yours. Give much love to your wife and assure her of our sympathy in her present peculiar and severe trials. Also very affectionate remembrances to Edely and Lucy - My interest in him will never cease while I live, and if I can in any way, be of service to him
it will be done most cheerfully.

Mr Moore joins me in love to you all -

Very affectionately your sister.

Harriet.

Roxbury July 12. 1848.

Dear brother Phelps - Husband has just received a note from Lewis Tappan of N. Y. stating that your health has failed since you went to Castine, and unless the weather was more favorable you would return to Boston. I need not say how much we regret to hear of your decline, and my object now in writing is to let you know that we have a home of our own, pleasantly situated in a healthy part of Roxbury, which we wish you to consider entirely at your service at any time. If you could like to come before your wife is able to accompany you, we shall esteem it a privilege to do every thing in our power to make you comfortable.

Should you feel disposed to come, we can make any arrangements as to your boarding or housekeeping that you wish, after you get him.

Mr Tappan wrote Mr Moore that you had expressed a wish that he (Mr M-) should superintend the publication of some of your papers; and if you are not coming soon, Mr M- would like to know precisely what you wish him to do.

We shall hope to hear very soon, from you and
